SalePoint Announces Virtual 18th Annual Retail Client Conference

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Sacramento, California – September 19, 2009

SalePoint today announced that it has changed its Annual Client Conference to a series of Webinars rather than the historical annual retail users' conference held in San Diego. The Webinars will be spread throughout the time period from September 22nd through October 8th.

“This year we heard from our customers that many of them who had attended the annual retail users' conference in past years would not be able to attend due to budget constraints related to the recession,” said Paul Streicher, President of the company. “We highly value the participation of our customers in the conference and their input on our product and strategic direction. A series of virtual conferences using GoToWebinar® is an exciting and viable alternative that will allow more individuals from our customer companies to participate at no cost other than their time.”

More information on the Retail Client Conference can be found on the company's website.
