Customers and Partners Gather at SalePoint's 17th Annual Retail Client Conference in San Diego.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE.

San Diego, CA – September 25, 2008

Customers joined SalePoint employees and partners in San Diego at the Kona Kai Resort on San Diego's Shelter Island for the 17th annual Retail Client Conference. The conference concluded on Wednesday, September 17th.

The attendees participated in sessions ranging from hands on sessions, round table discussions to future technology presentations. Customer successes were presented featuring Retail Interact™ Merchandise Management, Trovato™ Point of Sale and Retail-J™ Java POS solutions. Customers and Partners also enjoyed "business after hours" sessions to network and interact with other retailers, partners and SalePoint staff. SalePoint customers from El Salvador, Canada, the East Coast and the West Coast attended the conference.

The conference was sponsored by ISD, IBM, ScanSource, New Generation Software, DigiPOS, Ingenico, Arrow ECS, who made presentations and exhibited new product offerings.

Paul Streicher, President of SalePoint, stated "We are very pleased with the turn out for this year's client conference. The conference is very valuable for our customers, and provides an outstanding opportunity to meet and interact to discuss business and talk about future direction. This year, as in the past, I received many positive comments on the learning opportunity and value of the contacts made and discussions with other retailers."
